

K-LOVE radio is very encouraging to the community, and it is where I turn for information. It would be a disservice if K-LOVE were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programing. K-LOVE serves the public interest by giving us somthing to listen to where we don't have to worry about what is being said and children can safely listen in without worry. Thank you for your time